Astrology For Lovers

from World of Wisdom

INTRODUCTION FOR COUPLES

The "Astrology for Lovers" program analyses the relationship possibilities and assesses the compatibility between two people. The left-hand column of the analysis shows the relationship from the point of view of the one partner and the right-hand column from the point of view of the other. This report describes facets of individual character which reveal certain predispositions within relationships whoever the partner is, as well as facets solely evoked by a specific partner. By enhancing your positive and transforming your negative behaviour patterns you will be able to have optimal success in your relationship.

PROJECTIONS

When there is an attraction between two people there is also a powerful tendency to see qualities in the partner which are the projections of one's own idealised picture of the relationship. Should problems arise later the likelihood is that they arise from these projections. This analysis shows what kind of partner Charles and Diana are attracted to and what to do to avoid evoking negative behaviour in the partner through the previously mentioned projection mechanisms. Greater awareness of these partnership mechanisms can improve a relationship immeasurably.

CONTRADICTIONS

The rest of the analysis deals with the planetary interactions between the two horoscopes. This makes it possible to learn the lessons which this particular partnership has in store for itself and to judge its compatibility. Please bear in mind that a horoscope - and personal character - are immensely complicated and full of contradictions. Although this analysis does try to weigh up different contradictory factors, seemingly opposite characteristics may well be listed next to each other. In these cases one type of behaviour will tend to neutralise or simply conflict with the other.

LISTEN TO YOUR HEART

In the comparison of two horoscopes there will always be problematic contacts as well as harmonious ones. From the point of view of long-term relationships, problematic inter-aspects also show compatibility ... there is far more likelihood of a stable bond with many problematic contacts than with no cross-contacts at all. Above all remember that if you have met and fallen for a person then that already shows compatibility, whatever your horoscope says. First listen to your heart, then use what you can learn from this report to improve on what you have.

GENERAL BACKGROUND

Charles

Diana

IDENTITY: Though the Sun Sign is obviously a very general factor in relationships, it is - together with the sign the Moon is in - nonetheless powerful. It is important to remember that any Sign can successfully relate to any other Sign. Statistically there are no pre-dispositions of one Sign to another. However the interaction between two Sun Signs will give rise to special pleasures or challenges which will form part of the process of personal development for each partner. Your Sun Sign reflects your personal identity and desire to realise yourself - what is important is whether you feel supported in this quest or not.

Sun in Scorpio

Develop emotional insight

As a Scorpio you are deep and inscrutable. You are looking for emotional commitment and intensity in a partner and you make no compromises until you have found it. You need a partner who appreciates your emotional honesty yet can accept your own unfathomable and rather secretive nature. You cannot tolerate any threat once you have made a commitment - your partner soon learns that flirtatiousness or emotional dishonesty has unacceptable consequences.

Sun in 4th House

You express your identity strongly in your home and family. These things are the axis on which your life turns.

Charles's Sun in Diana's 11th House

You make Diana aware of the need for her to assume a higher profile in her social relations. Your own social position may be an example to her. Through friends and a network of contacts you both discover a greater capacity for expressing your unique talents.

Sun in Cancer

Sense of belonging

As a Cancer you are sensitive and emotionally vulnerable with a strong tendency to develop dependence in a relationship. This may mean that you become possessive and sulky when thwarted. Family is a high priority so you are looking for a partner with whom you may establish a safe and cosy haven built around a home and children. You do not want a partner who threatens your emotional security in any way.

In some cultural traditions women have tended to repress their individuality and to project aspects of their personal identity onto their partner. Women with the Sun in Cancer may well be attracted to the emotional kind of man, possessive and moody and aggressively defensive about anything to do with the family. Time will show however that these qualities are actually much stronger in you than in your partner.

Sun in 7th House

Relating to others is a major area of self-expression for you, and you invest your identity in your relationships.

Diana's Sun in Charles's 12th House

You make Charles aware of the importance of subtle emotional and spiritual factors as a basic power behind existence. Circumstances in your relationship suggest that an element of sacrifice or isolation is necessary for your true self-realisation.

What makes people with the same Sun Signs so different is the contacts to other planets - or aspects - that the Sun makes. The following section shows which planets in your horoscope aspect your Sun and thereby modify your identity - and what consequences this may have in relationships.

Sun positive Mercury

A subjective view

Considerable self-esteem is invested in your ideas and opinions. You may be very creative but have difficulty seeing matters objectively. It is not always easy for you to see things from your partner's point of view. Personal pride interferes with communication.

Sun negative Pluto

Breakdown, build-up

Your life is characterised by periodic identity crises, in which the past crumbles into the dust and you uncompromisingly create a new identity for yourself. This leads inevitably to battles of power with the people you

Sun positive Pluto

Being masterful

You have a very strong character with a deep psychological interest in what goes on within yourself and others. You know how to handle power, and tend to be rather autocratic, inspiring respect, if not nervousness, in are involved with. You invest others with power over your life and become totally absorbed in fighting for a control which, in reality, was yours all along. Your partner experiences anxiety and exhaustion acting as an unwilling therapist whilst you go through this process.

others. Though quite secretive, you require honesty in your partner; though wilful, you appreciate it when your partner stands up to you. You understand weakness but have no respect for a partner who is weak.

You tend to gravitate towards a man who is indomitable and rather inscrutable - a person who exudes a quiet strength and power. You may be lucky to find such a person, but don't push him too hard - you may discover weaknesses. It is you yourself who possesses these resilient qualities.

Mutuality: Please note that in this case both Charles and Diana have an aspect between the same two planets. This shows a strong bond, and increases compatibility and stability in the relationship. Mutuality - positive/negative: Although dealing with this mutual influence will be easier for one of you to handle than the other, together you will work out lasting solutions to difficult problems and thus enhance the quality of your relationship. Sun/Pluto: This will be most apparent in the way you deal with power. As both of you fear being helpless and strive for dominance, the true challenge of being together is to free yourself from the tyranny of past trauma and develop compassionate psychological insights.

Your ability to realise yourself, and the attitude that your partner has to this quest for self-realisation, is shown by the interaction between the Sun in the one horoscope and the planets in the other. This has a profound effect on how you are able to express yourself in each other's company.

Charles's Sun negative Diana's Moon

Me or you?

Although there is a close emotional bond between you, you will often feel that Diana gets vulnerable or moody when you express yourself and your individual needs. You may find her response rather irrational but the fact is she is concerned about her personal security and that of the family, feeling that you often go off on your own individual trip without much sense of consideration for the deeply-felt needs of others. It is wise therefore to take time to reassure her and explain that what is good for you could in the long run also be good for you both. However, compromises must be made if you want a modicum of emotional comfort from the relationship. Acts of generosity on your part can work wonders.

Charles's Mercury positive Diana's Sun

The mental spark

This is a major compatibility factor which truly enhances your ability to communicate together. Generally you feel a strong respect for Diana, you are curious about her ideas and willing to disseminate them to others. When she takes herself too seriously you know how to make her lighten up, when she is short of inspiration your thoughts can make a difference. This would be quite a good working partnership, in which your role would be messenger and secretary perhaps. You have an active and very mental relationship and this would involve you getting out and about together and making contact with others, communicating or writing.

You are the ideas person, bringing inspiration and information to Diana. You have much to offer her both intellectually and in the art of communication.

Diana's Moon negative Charles's Sun

Me or you?

This contact represents a powerful emotional bond between you which intimately affects every aspect of your life. Your relationship is strong but it is not so safe and secure as you would like it to be. You feel very attached to Charles but he may often feel smothered or put under emotional pressure by you. For your part, you tend to react emotionally when he goes off and does what is important for him. If you want greater rewards in your relationship you should support him in his efforts for self-realisation even though you fear this may upset your security. You simply have different priorities on basic issues and as you have the greatest capacity to adjust, it would pay you to do so.

Diana's Sun positive Charles's Mercury

The mental spark

You are fascinated and energised by the way Charles walks, talks and thinks. You find him fun to be with and inspiring to communicate with. Together you like to be on the move, meeting people, travelling or learning. He gets you to lighten up and either see the humour of the moment in some situations or understand what's going on in others. He awakens your curiosity about life and can be a great teacher and an even better student. Apart from being able to mine him for information you can gain insight into your own character, through listening to his ideas and reflections. As a team you would perform well in an advisory role or as information-gatherer and teacher.

Charles is the ideas-person and you are constantly inspired by his remarks and comments. This leads you to reflect on yourself and build up your confidence.

Charles's Sun negative Diana's Uranus

The Clash

Although this is not a major factor in your relationship you may often be disturbed by unpredictable actions and events precipitated by Diana. This can be very interesting and stimulating for you but also rather unsettling. You will not be permitted to indulge in self-satisfaction - she wants to provoke change in you. This can be a consciousness-raising factor in your life together but there would be more harmony if you were accepted as you are. Clashes of style and personality arise in which you feel quite threatened, as Diana tends to make it clear that she will not accept any limitations just because you are together and may demonstrate this point quite dramatically through alarming displays of independence.

When you express yourself you will often find Diana reacting in a very provocative manner and this has a tendency to keep you constantly off-balance.

Charles's Neptune negative Diana's Sun

Fall from the pedestal

Though not the most important influence in your relationship this contact tends to cloud your view of Diana. You can have rather unrealistic expectations of her, and this can end in disappointment or feelings of dissatisfaction. Perhaps it is as if being with her evokes some sense of sadness in you or a vague feeling of nothing ever lasting long enough to feel secure. Or alternatively, you may have to sacrifice something dear to you for the relationship. Whatever the case, Diana often senses a longing or discontent in you which she can do nothing about. Despite these factors, there may be considerable spiritual growth for you both, and should you choose to work altruistically together then this may be beneficial.

Spontaneous self-expression on Diana's part leaves you feeling confused as to how to respond - she needs your acceptance and approval.

Diana's Uranus negative Charles's Sun

The Clash

You tend to exacerbate the instabilities in Charles's inner life because of your provocative attitude. You seem to want him to make changes in his nature just for the sake of change and this naturally creates tensions between you. There is something so different about you that he finds himself constantly surprised, stimulated and challenged. For your part there is something in him which evokes an alien quality in you. This means that at times of disturbance you can suddenly create an enormous distance between yourself and Charles, which in turn creates an explosive atmosphere, which can mean that being separate is sometimes easier than being together. Part of the purpose of your relationship is for you both to become awakened and open to change, but, if harmony is important to you, then it is up to you to ease stress by lessening the electric charge between you.

Your tendency to challenge the way Charles expresses himself can turn him into a nervous wreck.

Diana's Sun negative Charles's Neptune

Fall from the pedestal

This is not a major factor in the bond between you, yet there may be times of considerable confusion in your relationship. This confusion may be of an existential nature and possibly something you have personally wrestled with all your life, which is brought to the fore when in Charles's company. You may experience him to be unclear about who he is, or about his direction in life, even though this might well describe your own situation. He, for his part, tends to give you a misleading idea of who you are and what kind of impression you make. He may express disappointment in you and let you know that you are not living up to his expectations - though this is hardly your problem. In the long term the relationship evokes in you a greater sensitivity, both to yourself and to others.

Charles can go seriously astray in his interpretation of you. Something about you undermines him and the feeling is mutual.

 EMOTIONAL FACTORS: The Moon represents powerful instincts for security and emotional well-being. At the same time the Moon shows subconscious reaction patterns that can either enhance or sabotage harmony. The Moon shows the kind of atmosphere you create in your home. The emotional environment evoked by the expression of your Moon Sign is of crucial importance in your relationship.

Moon in Taurus

Maintain solid foundations

With your Moon in Taurus you are general very calm - even placid. You tend to avoid unpredictable situations and concentrate on creating a secure environment, both materially and emotionally. You are stubborn and too slow to adapt to changing emotional conditions in a relationship. Though excellent at giving emotional support and succour, you may fail to recognise the need for development and change in your partner.

Moon in 10th House

You are very emotionally involved with your standing in society and with issues of authority. Your mother probably

Moon in Aquarius

Caring for humanity

With your Moon In Aquarius you have an electric presence which really peeps up the environment. You are loyal and committed in a partnership, but you definitely don't want to be smothered or prevented from pursuing the friendships which also draw upon your loyalties. Under emotional pressure you freeze up, and withdraw to another planet. You need to tune more into your emotions instead of analysing everything rationally.

Moon in 2nd House

You are most emotionally involved with matters concerning your family economy and may feel very has a profound influence on you and your direction in life.

insecure when your material life is in a process of change.

Charles's Moon in Diana's 4th House

You are very absorbed in Diana's family environment and roots and she awakens an awareness of your own family heritage and the role it has played in your emotional development. Your house and family-life are extremely important for your sense of security in this relationship.

Diana's Moon in Charles's 8th House

You make deep emotional demands on Charles and force him to examine his feelings which, under normal circumstances, would never come to the surface. This relationship brings psychological growth and understanding to you both, though many emotional crises arise. Profound changes in your emotional and economic well-being force periodic adjustments to your life together.

As Charles has the Moon in Taurus, there is a strong need to create a stable and secure environment. Diana, with Moon in Aquarius is both used to, and seeks, alternative ways of living. She feels the urge to go against convention, and to seek contact with unusual people and exotic environments, and this can be rather unsettling for Charles.

This section shows the influence of different planets in your own horoscope upon your Moon - major factors in shaping your emotional life. These aspects from other planets to your Moon will evoke the following subconscious patterns, creating a partnership environment in which you must either sink or swim.

Moon negative Mercury

Emotions hold sway

You are a very emotional person and this tinges the way you communicate. You may sway other people with your feelings and influence them with your mood, but in stress situations you blow it, losing coherence because your feelings predominate over everything else.

Moon positive Uranus

Freedom of spirit

You are a freedom-loving person who consciously avoids a relationship which might become an emotional straightjacket. You seek an emotional environment which supports your need for freedom and allows you to develop your social interests. You are the eclectic type and need a partner who shares your sense of adventure and experimentation.

You feel emotionally attracted to the liberated kind of woman for whom the concept of friendship is at least as important as that of love. Actually, women sense your reluctance to commit yourself emotionally and instinctively give you the freedom you require.

Moon negative Uranus

Emotional unpredictability

There is an inner emotional restlessness in your nature which tends to disturb family harmony. You are easily bored and you impulsively initiate unpredictable changes in daily rhythms and habits - and this will often unnerve your partner. You instinctively recreate the tensions that affected your own upbringing, upsetting the atmosphere at home. Traditional family life is not for you - you dislike the restrictions which partnership responsibilities bring - so you should go out more on your own and get involved with friends and groups.

Mutuality: Please note that in this case both Charles and Diana have an aspect between the same two planets. This shows a strong bond, and increases compatibility and stability in the relationship. Mutuality - positive/negative: Although dealing with this mutual influence will be easier for one of you to handle than the other, together you will work out lasting solutions to difficult problems and thus enhance the quality of your relationship. Moon/Uranus: This will be most apparent in how you deal with your tendency to risk your emotional security because of a general restlessness and need for change.

The interaction between the Moon in the one horoscope, and the planets in the other, has a profound effect on the kind of atmosphere you create together. This section describes how and where you are emotionally touched by your partner, for good or ill. In this area you are at your most vulnerable and least aware. Conscious work on irrational emotional reactions is the key to harmony here.

Charles's Moon positive Diana's Mercury

Fond chat

This contact indicates a warm and stimulating bond between you and is very favourable for the relationship. You feel comfortable together and can talk easily - especially about reminiscences. You feel that Diana understands you and can help you put words to what you feel. You really know how to make your everyday life function harmoniously and you enshrine this knowledge in your cosy habits and instinctive understanding of each other. You have a precious ability to tune in to what she is thinking. This is very positive for the upbringing and education of children together.

When you express your needs and feelings you get a quick and understanding response from Diana, who helps you see things objectively and brings a light touch when most needed.

Charles's Moon negative Diana's Jupiter

Insight into dependency

This is a stimulating contact which expands your horizons, bringing cultural stimulation and perhaps a good deal of travel together. You are forced to shake yourself loose from a nostalgic attachment to the past by Diana's desire for development and growth. This does not make you feel particularly secure and you may periodically dig in your heels. You find her very persuasive but your instinctive feelings do not often harmonise with her intellectual argumentation. Diana acts as if she knows what's best for you - and when you do not agree you respond by getting moody, thereby effectively countering her capacity to influence you against your will.

You feel Diana does not understand you when you express your feelings - and you don't always want to be understood. Otherwise you might express yourself in a way she could relate to.

Charles's Moon negative Diana's Saturn

Emotional burdens

On first meeting there is a reluctance to get involved. You sense that this relationship entails a commitment that you are not sure you want to make. Perhaps it could be termed a "karmic" bond - there is at least no doubt that being with Diana is a learning process which brings a great deal of emotional difficulty. She does not know how to react to you when you express your feelings - it awakens her latent fears and inhibitions. She thus reacts by limiting your emotional expression and assuming a parental role which can be very limiting for you. Diana wants you to grow up but it hurts - and perhaps she herself should learn to be more dependant and child-like. Once the bond is made in this relationship, it tends to stick, and in the long term this can be a very developmental process for you, if you need to attain more maturity. Together you tend to develop pessimistic attitudes towards the future which encourage an attachment to material things.

Charles's Uranus positive Diana's Moon

Helter-skelter

This contact is characterised by excitement and a high degree of emotional freedom. Traditional emotional bonds are not for you - you do not approve of

Diana's Mercury positive Charles's Moon

Fond chat

This extremely positive connection brings a wonderfully varied life together with a good deal of fun, happiness and harmony. You can chatter on about all manner of things and you will personally feel that you have an ideal listener in Charles. You really feel understood and you also sense that he enjoys listening to you rattling on about your thoughts and ideas. Later in life you will enjoy reminiscing together. The sense of being in mental and emotional harmony permeates much of what you do and is especially conducive to having a family and bringing up children. You create a good environment for healthy growth in children, both intellectually and emotionally. Basically you will agree on most everyday matters.

You are truly interested in how Charles feels and can help him verbalise his emotions. Thus deeply-felt matters are clarified and come out into the open.

Diana's Jupiter negative Charles's Moon

Insight into dependency

Though this is a very emotionally stimulating contact, you tend to be somewhat intellectually dominating in this relationship proffering advice which does not necessarily accord with the needs of your partner. Charles may feel that your moral judgement weighs heavily upon him. However, you are able to open his horizons despite his reservations, and this may mean travel to distant cultures and a considerable expansion in his all-round experience of life. This is a reasonably beneficial influence as regards family and children, but there is a tendency to bring up children according to some dogma to which you are attached. Your solutions may have worked for you but they are not necessarily good for others.

There are no easy solutions for emotional insecurity - try to understand what Charles truly needs.

Diana's Saturn negative Charles's Moon

Emotional burdens

This is undoubtedly a difficult contact on an emotional level - especially for Charles. He feels himself limited and judged by you ... cornered somehow, by the rigid structures you create which stifle his growth. Perhaps it is because you feel that the child in him needs to grow up and that he can only reach maturity through discipline. In reality your own insecurity is awakened by his emotional spontaneity and the parental role you adopt becomes a way of avoiding feelings and only serves to perpetuate immaturity and dependence. There may well be a strong bond between you, a sense that you know and belong to each other, but you must rise to the emotional challenge - learn sensitivity and vulnerability from Charles - if you are to avoid stunting the growth of the relationship.

When you are negative it has a profoundly depressive effect on Charles. He simply cannot handle it.

Diana's Moon positive Charles's Uranus

Helter-skelter

This contact definitely contributes to the excitement in your relationship - but not to its stability. Charles encourages you to experiment with your life, make possessiveness or conventional family ties in your relationship to Diana - you are seeking an alternative life-style with her, perhaps with the opportunity to travel, or simply develop your personal consciousness. Though Diana may desire closer emotional bonds you prefer to accentuate friendship rather than intimacy. As a result your relationship may be warm but rarely gets passionate; it may be very exciting but will rarely have the highest priority in your life. The need to live under one roof together is not pronounced and there will be times of travel which may mean you are separated for periods in your lives. You need to do exciting things together.

Charles's Moon positive Diana's Pluto

Emotional spring-cleaning

This is not a major factor in the relationship but at times of crisis and transformation you will find Diana very supportive on a deep emotional level, especially when you want to initiate change and cut your bonds to the past. No emotional extreme on your part is too shocking for her to handle. This influence leads to psychological growth and maturity, particularly with regard to the purging of demons from the subconscious. Nevertheless, this is not a contact which is going to make you feel comfortable exactly, because she is rooting for change in you and takes an active role in forcing you to exorcise old ghosts. This can be unsettling, not only from an emotional point of view but also with regard to family matters, as she encourages your latent tendency to pull yourself up by the roots and replant yourself in a new environment.

changes and work on personal growth. He is more interested in getting you out of a rut, breaking attachments to the past and bringing new insights. This could be excellent for travel or settling into a completely new environment, though not so conducive to raising a family or building a home. There is a need for an untraditional relationship with mutual freedom. Charles reacts to your attempts to be possessive by distancing himself, and this can make you feel rather insecure. He refuses to be owned by you and may be reluctant to make an emotional commitment. However he does help you examine your own feelings more objectively.

Diana's Pluto positive Charles's Moon

Emotional spring-cleaning

This is quite a powerful influence on an emotional and psychological level, and leads to a process of shedding the past and reconstructing your foundations. By choosing to live with you, Charles comes under your spell and uses you as a catalyst for a long-felt need for deep-rooted change. This can involve a kind of rootlessness, as growth for him often means casting himself adrift from the well-known anchors of past attachments and previous family commitments. You encourage an inner soul-searching in Charles, and are yourself prepared to release your own attachments if that's what it takes to purge him from his past negativity. Together you may also work for reform in the outside world - especially with regard to social and environmental issues.

YOUR SOUL MATE

THE DESCENDANT SIGN: The disposition towards specific kinds of relationships is shown by the East/West horizon in your horoscope - the Ascendant/Descendant axis - and particularly the sign on the Descendant - the 7th House cusp. A person may be attracted to many different kinds of partner, but the horoscope will often indicate a specific destiny with regard to long-term relationships. The lasting partnership will be a mixture of love and destiny - if we are to spend many years together, there will be struggle and growth as well as happiness. This destiny is shown by the 7th house of the horoscope, which indicates personality traits which we tend to deny in ourselves and are fated to seek in others.

Descendant in Aquarius

Seeking unconventionality

Whilst you spend much of your energy trying to realise yourself in the centre of the world's stage, you are drawn to a partner whose own identity has a lower personal priority. This person will be versatile and communicative with many mental interests. You are brought into contact with many people through this relationship and develop a wide range of mental skills.

Through partnership you are drawn into a social network which is a constant source of enlightenment to you. You will often find your partner involved with friends or special interests, with seemingly little time to devote to you. Actually this remoteness in relationships is partly because you are somewhat self-involved and attention-seeking, and this paradoxically evokes in others a tendency to distance themselves. Through relationships you can learn greater objectivity concerning your life and the direction in which you are going. Issues in the relationship then centre around subjectivity and objectivity, and you learn to appreciate, with time, that everyone feels different and rather special.

Descendant in Gemini

Seeking mental stimulation

You will attract a partner who is flexible and excellent at making contact with people - someone who is at ease talking to you and who is capable of lightening you up when you take yourself too seriously. This person will be sensitive and moody, with a strong protective streak. Your partner teaches you the importance of opening up emotionally.

In contrast with your tendency to speculate deeply about the meaning of life, your partner may show you the simple pleasures of being with people and getting the conversation to flow, even if this means talking in banalities. There may be times when your partner strikes you as superficial, but people often feel the need to joke around, when confronted with your habit of opining about the deep issues in life. The important things for you are that the partner is intelligent, good at listening, and curious about life in general. Communication and knowledge are central, and you will learn through partnership that it is a two-way process, based on respect for the other person's ideas.

Your choice of life-style awakens a certain anxiety and insecurity in Diana. With time she develops a greater self-understanding and psychological insight to cope with this.

Your life-style will teach Charles something about how to enjoy life and express himself. He will strive to brighten your life and provide children you can be proud of.

This section shows the influence of different planets in your own horoscope upon your Ascendant/Descendant axis - major factors in shaping your relationships. These aspects from planets to your Ascendant will give you a specific attitude and behaviour towards everyone you relate to.

Mercury negative Ascendant

Distraction

Communication is a very important aspect of a relationship for you, and you are skilled at making contact and getting the words to flow. However, you often feel misunderstood and lack of confidence may make you unconvincing. You often feel like a lightweight in intellectual matters, but a mastery of real knowledge will win confirmation, so it is just a question of working at educating yourself.

Aspects from planets in one horoscope to the Ascendant/Descendant axis of the partner's horoscope, are major factors showing the strong likelihood of a meaningful long-term relationship. It is these contacts which make all the difference between mere attraction, and the ability to influence each other's lives. You have the following bond:

Charles's Venus positive Diana's Ascendant

Pleasuring

Yours is a very romantic relationship indeed - perhaps you prefer to consider yourself more of a lover than a partner. Diana is at least captivated by your charms, which bring the satisfactions and erotic spices of the harem into your relationship. Your values and aesthetic judgement enhance the quality of life of your partner, who allows you to dictate whatever style you deem fit for mutual satisfaction. She evokes the loving qualities within you and you respond by bringing good grace and refinement into the time you spend together. You have a strong need for expressions of affection - both emotionally and materially - and Diana is always willing to please.

You know how to sweeten Diana's life by indulging her needs. You are excellent at pleasuring.

Diana's Ascendant positive Charles's Venus

Pleasuring

This is a very favourable contact, considerably enhancing the romance and sense of well-being which you both feel in the relationship. Charles is at pains to show his best sides to you and will generally try to smooth the path for you, using his considerable charm to facilitate your progress in relation to other people. Material and emotional well-being is a major factor for you both, and Charles will expect to live in a certain style, which you will only be too happy to provide. Love and romance is an essential ingredient in the bond between you, and though family priorities may be important, the need to feel that you are still in love will have dominance.

The styles and tastes which Charles embraces profoundly affects your values in life.

Diana's Mars negative Diana's Ascendant

Giving a push

You have a powerfully provocative effect on Diana, forcing her to assert herself in one way or another. This makes your relationship very dynamic and as long as there are challenges and activities then it can function. You awaken a strong sexual fascination in her though this can often bring disturbance to her life. There can be too many quarrels and arguments. You like Diana to take the initiative but tend to fight it when she does. Such competitiveness can be wearing in the long run. You should use your energy to inspire and encourage, not to sabotage and provoke.

Decisions on Diana's part to make changes in life-style are threatening for you and provoke an adverse reaction. Time will show that it is in your interest to support your partner's choices.

Diana's Ascendant negative Charles's Mars

Giving a push

This is quite a powerful contact between you both, but although it contributes to a certain attraction, the chances of long-term harmony are pretty slim, though there is excitement to be had. You find Charles quite provocative and there is often a clash of wills. He hates to be told what to do, and constantly makes a point of doing exactly what he wants, when you try to get your way. This leads to conflict and argument. The relationship works best when there is an outer challenge for you both to overcome, and when the pace is hot. There may be considerable sexual attraction, but by itself this influence simply brings trouble.

When you manifest the direction you want to take in life you will often encounter considerable resistance or aggression from Charles.

Charles's Ascendant negative Diana's Jupiter

Different views

This is an important contact between you both, stimulating your intellectual capacities and awareness of the important issues in life. Diana will introduce you to a view of life quite different from the one you are comfortable with, and she will generally expand your horizons and make you question what you do. That said, considerable disagreement can arise because of your different views - especially pertaining to the kind of life you personally choose to live. You may feel she is simply too opinionated, and she should learn that what is right for her is not necessarily right for you.

You often find you have to assert what you want to do in life contrary to the advice Diana tries to give you.

Charles's Ascendant negative Diana's Neptune

Losing direction

Though not a major influence on your relationship, this contact awakens many of Diana's latent hopes, dreams and longings. Many of these dreams are projected onto you in the form of unrealistic expectations. In the long term she may express disappointment at the direction in which your life is going, and this may undermine your lifestyle, and confuse you as to the purpose of your relationship. The bond between you may be characterised by some kind of sorrow or sacrifice, and as such can have a spiritually refining effect.

Diana tends to get disappointed and confused by the direction in life which you pursue.

Charles's Pluto positive Diana's Ascendant

No stone unturned

This contact between you has a profound transformative influence because Diana feels the need to change the way she runs her life when she is together with you. You also feel a strong drive to change and transform her, perhaps because you have the capacity to diagnose the weaknesses in her nature and propose psychological cures. You have a positive antipathy to superficiality in your relationship with Diana, and insist on an uncompromising emotional depth. Being together then is an intense affair in which emotional extremes and erotic obsessions play important roles. Greater personal awareness and inner self-knowledge result, but constant self-therapy may be exhausting in the long run.

Diana's Jupiter negative Charles's Ascendant

Different views

This is an important contact in the partnership, and though it is generally intellectually and philosophically stimulating, you are not likely to be in agreement about everything - neither as regards the life-direction which Charles chooses to take, nor concerning your views about partnership. He may respect your advice but he will not necessarily follow it. You in turn should offer your opinions dispassionately and without the expectation that he should necessarily follow them. Your need for further education and travel may conflict with your partner's concepts about what constitutes a committed relationship. Above all your beliefs will represent a challenge to Charles and require considerable adjustments from his side.

Diana's Neptune negative Charles's Ascendant

Losing direction

This contact is intangible but nonetheless powerful because living with Charles awakens subtle feelings of discontent in your breast, and makes you poignantly aware of the transience of life and the relative meaninglessness of human life, in the context of eternity. Significance comes through spiritual effort and through giving priority to others. Put in more concrete terms, there is a feeling that you can never be sure of Charles or that you cannot build solid foundations in the relationship. Whether it lasts or not is in the hands of a greater power than yours, and this entails developing a deeper acceptance of your own inner nature. What you can do is to strive to be supportive and positive, as he often feels undermined by your feelings of dissatisfaction and unhappiness (though he is probably no stranger to these feelings in his own life).

Diana's Ascendant positive Charles's Pluto

No stone unturned

Though not a major factor in the relationship, this connection awakens latent emotional and psychological interests in Charles, who is consequently inspired to bring out the intensity and depth in the love between you. Living with him will be a constant growth process for you, as you are forced to examine your deepest motivations, and encouraged to get rid of unnecessary emotional baggage. Erotic factors play a central role in the relationship, as you seek the deepest levels of each others' souls.

Charles's uncompromising attitude to life often forces you to reassess your direction.

In searching for someone to live together with, there is a strong urge to find a person who expresses characteristics which we possess ourselves but fail to recognise and develop. Finding a partner will often compensate for this and make us whole. These characteristics sought in the partner are shown by the planet ruling the sign on the Descendant, and its Sign and House position, and its Aspects. The following section describes the kind of person you unconsciously seek, where you can meet this person - and what behaviour you evoke in the partner through needs unresolved in yourself.

Much of your time together will be spent with others socially, and there may be a special responsibility for children who are more connected to your partner than yourself. Partnerships develop surprisingly from friendships.

Descendant ruler positive Moon

A partner who cares

You should feel that your partner is tuned in to your deepest emotional needs. You agree on creating a secure emotional environment to build a home and family. As you are attracted to an emotional and sensitive person, with a bit of luck you will find that you have an unspoken understanding of, and sympathy for, each other.

Descendant ruler negative Jupiter

Opinions as an issue

You are attracted to a wise but rather opinionated partner who can expand your intellectual horizons. Unfortunately there are many disagreements about matters of principle and discussions about right and wrong. You often feel unfairly treated and fight for your rights. A relationship helps you define your beliefs and spiritual values, but both of you need to respect the other's freedom of belief.

person who will not necessarily choose to conduct the relationship on your terms. On the contrary, you will have to go the extra mile to fulfil your partner's personal needs. Nevertheless, partnership is a high priority for you and brings powerful personal development - precisely because you have to make allowances for the other person. You tend to meet your partner in a social environment in which you meet with others on equal terms, but you do have to go to your partner - your potential mate will not come to you.

Diana% Mercury in Charles's 11th House

Being with Charles stimulates your abilities to make contact with other people and build up a network of friends and colleagues with shared ideals. You facilitate him in making social progress, because of your interest for and curiosity about the people he mingles with.

Descendant ruler positive Sun

A partner to admire

You will feel that your partner may complement you as an individual and may be relied on to show you support and loyalty. You may expect to feel looked up to and admired by your partner. By being with this person you experience a stronger sense of your own identity, and this, in turn, will give you a powerful sense of personal satisfaction - particularly through having children or through any creative activity together. In most matters your partner may defer to you, without losing any personal dignity.

Descendant ruler positive Mars

A partner with dash

You are attracted to partner who is something of a fighter. This person will be competitive and dynamic and you will enjoy competing with each other. You would simply not be satisfied with a partner who was weak or soft - you prefer the stimulation of battle to the boredom of peace. If a potential partner shows a healthy interest in sex, it is a definite plus for the relationship. You want to be active, take risks and have fun together.

Descendant ruler positive Neptune

A partner to dream with

You appreciate idealism and fantasy in a partner and are attracted to a creative person who has many dreams. This person is inclined to renounce materialistic values and see issues exclusively in human terms - being more concerned with the emotional quality of life, perhaps. There is no guarantee that the partnership will be stable but you will learn to develop your own spiritual nature through your relationships.

Descendant ruler positive Pluto

A partner to transform you

Your partner will probably have deep and intense sides and have considerable psychological insight. You are attracted to a person who is prepared to undergo a personal transformation through intense emotional and erotic experiences. Being with your partner facilitates your own powerful drive to shed your superficiality, and reach to the core of your being.

If there are planets in the 7th House there is then a tendency to meet a specific type of partner and have a specific type of experience. Planets in this house show strong drives in you which may only be fulfilled through contact with another. People expressing this energy are mysteriously drawn into your life, thus giving you the opportunity to get to know the shadow side of yourself.

Sun in 7th House

Someone to look up to

Partnership is an extremely important part of your life, and you define your identity through your ability to relate well. The most important criterion in choosing a partner is your ability to respect and admire the person in question. As you are willing to model your identity on this person, respect is crucial. You choose therefore someone who is prominent in some way - a person with confidence and charisma who exerts influence in society. You tend to lose your identity in your partner, so you must take care that when you find yourself you do not lose your partner.

Mercury in 7th House

Meeting of minds

The most important criterion for you when choosing a partner is the ability to communicate well. You are looking for a person who you can tune into mentally, discuss issues with, and generally have an interesting time with. You are attracted to youthful elf-like types with mischief and humour. You have a tendency to evoke superficiality in your partner because of an unconscious desire to avoid deeper issues. Partnerships often bring a special dilemma connected with choice between two people. Marriage for you is a mutual learning process and a meeting of minds.

LOVE AND SEX

ROMANTIC NEEDS: Whatever kind of relationship you commit yourself to in the long term, you have certain values which reflect your personal taste and inclinations, when choosing whose company you wish to enjoy. Should your partner not satisfy all your social needs, you will seek fulfilment in friendships and other connections. These social and romantic needs are reflected by Venus in your horoscope. Not only does Venus show what qualities you value in others, this planet will also reflect feminine self-esteem in a woman's horoscope, and the type of woman which a man is attracted to in a man's horoscope. For both sexes the position of Venus will show specific types of experiences in love - and what to do about them.

Venus in Libra

Taste and diplomacy

You have great talent for dealing with people, both on a social level and also when it comes to romantic matters. You have a light-hearted and balanced nature, and you are motivated towards creating harmony in your relationships. Your superior judgement and fine aesthetic sense are major assets in your love-life. Though a long-term relationship is important for you, you expect the aura of romance to be there constantly, and are prepared to do something about it if you feel it is missing.

You are attracted to a refined kind of woman, with well-developed social graces, for whom partnership is a major factor in life.

Venus in Taurus

Protect your values

You are a sensuous person with a strong need for closeness and comfort in personal relationships. You express your feelings physically, and have the ability to enhance the quality of life in partnerships - perhaps because you are so good at appreciating and savouring the moment. You like material things, and concrete expressions of affection as well as a good economy are certainly no hindrance, when you are assessing the qualities of your loved one. You are looking for stability and security.

Venus in 4th House

Domestic harmony

You express the warmest of affections for your family and are very attached to your home. You express yourself with grace and style in this area, and have little difficulty using your social talents to achieve results. Your attitude to relationships stems from the nature of the bond of affection between your parents. Beneficial childhood influences lead you to preserve old bonds and strive to create an atmosphere of harmony in the home. You like to surround yourself with beautiful things in your home environment. Romance blossoms through your family connections.

Charles's Venus in Diana's 9th House

You can introduce Diana to the beauty born of a greater understanding and the importance of balance in her spiritual life. You bring cultural depth and the magic of foreign countries. Travel awakens the loving spirit between you.

Venus in 5th House

Romance

You have an extremely winning way of projecting yourself and this makes you a popular and well-loved person. You express yourself in a warm, natural and sensuous manner, and often gain material rewards via relationships. You need a lot of feedback with regard to your attractiveness, and may actually be rather flirtatious and attention-seeking. This will result in love affairs during the course of your life and, indeed, there is nothing like a romance to add a little spice. Having children provides a good outlet for your love of fun and pleasure.

Diana's Venus in Charles's 11th House

You can help smooth the way for Charles in his social relations and professional connections. He appreciates your natural ability in helping people to socialise inside his circle and you can feel that you have a valued role to play, creating harmony between very disparate friends and acquaintances.

Your capacity to give and receive love and your sense of self-worth are modified by contacts from Venus to other planets in your birth chart. These aspects reflect the many nuances in romantic taste, showing which particular brew of influences go into forming your personal judgements. The following section shows what attributes a person must have to be romantically attractive to you, and how your own personal values influence your love life.

Venus positive Neptune

Hollywood romance

You have a very romantic and loving nature and are willing to go a long way in the cause of love. Tolerant and understanding, you see the potential in other human beings, and love selflessly in the expectation that their potential will be realised as a result. Sometimes it will, but you are prone to disappointment. Furthermore you may easily be taken advantage of because you do not define what you can, or cannot, accept. You are apt to fall for an idealised picture of a person and are reluctant to open your eyes to see your loved one clearly - warts and all. Get real.

You are a real sucker for the diaphanous romantic woman with a heart of gold. You project upon her the purest virtues, partly because of your own "Hollywood" ideals about love. You can make it easier on your loved one by accepting her exactly as she is.

Venus positive Pluto

The Earth moves?

You take love seriously and live out your passions with feeling and intensity. In return you expect your partner to be completely involved, just like you. You have the ability to get under the skin of your loved one, understanding in depth all the insecurities and deep needs that you find hidden within. In this sense you can have a therapeutic effect, because you can untie your partner's emotional knots. Intimacy is your highest priority, and this means that sexuality has high priority also - not just for sensory pleasures but because it offers a window to the soul.

You are attracted to a deep and emotionally intense woman who is prepared to become passionately involved

Venus negative Moon

Mother or Lover

There is a strong contrast between your conception of what constitutes love, and what constitutes the security of home and family. This probably stems from your awareness of the problems your mother had as a woman, and your problems in "severing the umbilical cord". This imbalance may make you dissatisfied within a long-term relationship.

As a woman, it is really a dilemma for you which role to take on - the mother or the mistress. If you place too much emphasis on the first, your romantic life suffers, too much on the second and your domestic life suffers. Avoid mollycoddling your man even if this means overcoming instinctive drives - yet keep the romantic spark kindled.

Venus positive Saturn

Commitment to love

You prefer to play it safe in love and may find yourself attracted to an older or more mature person - someone you can rely on, who can provide structure and security in your relationship. Intimacy does not come easily to you - you often express your feelings rather formally, even after many years of being together. Neither do you demand exaggerated demonstrations of love. For you a relationship is a pledge which involves more than romantic love - there is the financial commitment to consider, as well as family responsibilities. You are loyal and dedicated in your feelings, and have the patience to see love through even when the going gets tough.

You are not very confident of your ability to attract men. You may be too careful and miss opportunities because you hide your true feelings. But you are prepared to make with you, body and soul, once initial insecurities are overcome. You are not inclined to put a valuable relationship at risk but erotic attractions wield considerable influence in your life.

a long-term commitment in the name of love.

Venus negative Uranus

Love - or freedom

You will have more than one unconventional relationship in your life. The arrow of love strikes you dramatically, often completely changing the course of your life. Relationships arise under extraordinary circumstances - often in connection with long-distance travel or with someone from a very foreign environment. Love brings consciousness-change, erotic transformations and breathless excitement. Somehow you convey the impression that love will not last - that you could suddenly go off with very little warning. You refuse to be owned, and this may mean you make no conventional marriage, or even choose to live separately. You need to overcome a fear of intimacy and be more emotionally committed.

The interaction between Venus in one horoscope and planets in the other, has a profound effect on how you are able to give and receive love. The following section shows to what extent your partner fulfils your need for love and what special behaviour characterises your love-life together.

Charles's Sun negative Diana's Venus

Price of romance

There is no doubt that you are very attracted to Diana, though you may not always agree with her taste or judgement. This contact makes for a strong piquant bond, in which there can be considerable differences of style. You are drawn to her but are rather nervously aware that she is also attractive in the eyes of others. Your pride is on the line. You are particularly conscious that her judgement in relationship matters is better than yours and you don't like to admit it. Actually she looks up to you and would like to have your attention. By being open, confident and generous you can be assured of your partner's constant affection.

Diana's Venus negative Charles's Sun

Price of romance

There is a strong bond of love and affection between you, though you may often disagree on matters of taste and fairness. Charles has difficulty accepting your judgement whilst you feel you know instinctively what is right in any given situation. He may conceal his lack of ability in this area through bluster - but you know how to get around him with good grace. You can get what you want through your charms and are careful not to hurt your partner's pride. You tend to rely too much on each other for declarations of admiration and affection - this is no substitute for mutual respect, which is the hallmark of a lasting relationship.

DESIRE: Sexuality is an essential ingredient for long-term satisfaction in a relationship, and this is shown by Mars in the horoscope. For a man this planet will also symbolise his masculine identity, whilst for a woman the sign Mars is in, and its aspects, will often show the kind of man she is attracted to. Mars will also show how you work together, and your ability to fight for what you need. Where Mars is, there is trouble, because issues of survival and self-assertion are paramount. In our civilised society both sexes tend to repress Mars - though women will do this more than men - and this may often mean that one's own aggression or oppression comes to expression in the partner's behaviour.

Mars in Sagittarius

Widen your horizons

You are a dynamic truth seeker, and nurture strong opinions on many matters ... and you are prepared to fight for them. Something of a pioneer, you enjoy travel and adventure, and cherish the spirit of freedom. You are a fighter for causes, a strong believer in right-and-wrong and the principles of justice. In relationships, quarrels easily arise if you feel unfairly treated or where there are disagreements over matters of principle. You tend to insist on being right, or on giving your opinion when not asked. Give your partner a better hearing.

Mars in Virgo

Develop organisational talents

You are hard-working and a perfectionist. With your highly-developed critical sense, conflicts may arise concerning duties - particularly housework. You have to control a tendency to bicker and fight about trivialities. Cleanliness and even prudishness may characterise your attitude to sexuality, but you enjoy physical contact and can be quite sensuous. It is important for you to feel respected for the work you do. Too much criticism, both of yourself and your partner, tends to upset the harmony between you.

energies and make quite an impression on other people when you choose to. This is an area in which you strive to gain understanding and expand your horizons - both intellectually and through travel. You also have a certain erotic charisma whether you are aware of this or not, and this means that you may easily attract potential love-affairs. You need to feel the tension associated with erotic attraction, and you can spend a lot of energy in pursuit of bodily pleasures which as far as you are concerned add spice to life. To ensure stability in long-term relationships you need to channel this energy creatively - either with children or in a profession which requires forceful self-projection.

Charles's Mars in Diana's 1st House

You provoke and galvanise Diana and make her irritated or inspired, depending on whether you are being destructive or constructive. She is goaded into action by your encouragement or pushiness, just as you can feel exasperated by what you consider to be her periodic lack of initiative. Your influence makes her far more daring.

uncovering the deepest emotional factors. You feel that there is a tremendous amount of work for you to do in this area and tend to get weighed down by everyday tasks and worries. Your life is one of subconscious passions which you may express yourself - or more likely evoke in your partner. Insecurities and jealousies tend to dominate, either because you choose a partner with powerful instinctual drives or because of secrets and repressions which tend to undermine your emotional peace of mind. You expend energy trying to control your partner and you often use the considerable power of erotic desire to do this. Sex is the battlefield on which you purge your deepest drives. With time, the psychological insight you gain, helps you reduce the casualties.

Diana's Mars in Charles's 2nd House

There is probably a strong physical attraction between you and Charles as you tend to stimulate his desires as well as inspire him to make greater efforts - and also take greater risks - to improve his economic situation. Meanwhile, you work hard trying to protect and fortify your partner's material situation.

Your ability to express your will and desires is considerably modified by the influence of other planets in your horoscope upon your Mars. These aspects show how you might best express yourself sexually and the kind of problems that may arise when you do. For women, aspects to Mars will often describe the behaviour of the man in the relationship. If this appears to be so, then projection is at work. By learning to be more clear-thinking, and asserting your genuine needs, these negative projections may be eliminated or at least modified.

Mars negative Jupiter

Bully boys

You have a strong sense of freedom and an adventurous nature. You are motivated to explore your world and widen your intellectual horizons and this may bring travel, absorption in studies and wide cultural interests. You have very strong opinions and are very persuasive - it is important for you to be right and you fight hard putting your point of view across. Arguments often arise when you feel that someone is being unfair or acts stupidly. You have a tendency to adopt a bullying tone and have difficulty entertaining the idea that you might be wrong. Your self-righteousness is a threat to your relationship.

You have strong appetites - both intellectually and sexually - and generally you get what you want, though with little consideration for the sensibilities of others. You may have strong moral ideals but they are no match for the power your desires have over you.

Mars negative Moon

Quarrelsome

You are a dynamic and fearless person, willing to accept a measure of risk in your life. There were many family battles in your own upbringing and as a result, you tend to react by being overly defensive, or by being aggressive, when you are under emotional pressure. This is not the way to defuse tension; it only leads to escalating conflicts with your partner. By learning self-control and by being more conciliatory, you may overcome your irrational anger which appears to be inherited from your mother.

You are often tormented by extremely strong emotions and this may make you short-tempered and irritable. Men in your life may be strongly provoked by your emotional reactions, which they cannot understand. Procreativity and family life bring troubles - perhaps because you are not at ease with your role as a mother.

Mars positive Mercury

Repatee

You have a sharp and witty mind and are full of ideas which you are eager to put into practice. You may be caustic but you are always stimulating. A dynamic traveller and avid learner, you probably have a wide network of friends and acquaintances. Always active, you may be involved in many projects and are always learning something new. In your partnership you need someone you can talk to, bounce ideas off, and do exciting things with.

Mars positive Pluto

Mars negative Pluto

Power-play

You are a powerful person - of that there is no doubt - and have a steely will which ensures that you get your way when you put your mind to it. Generally you are motivated to create positive change in your environment and fight corruption. Sexuality is extremely important for you in a relationship and you have a magnetic, even hypnotic aura which may exert a mysterious hold upon your loved one. You have the power to completely ignore sex for a period, whilst at other times you are possessed by its attractions. You tend to take control when making love and feel uncomfortable in a passive role - and this may hinder orgasmic release. Through sexuality, deep transformations take place in many areas of your life.

During your life you have learned to handle power - perhaps because you had to overcome a number of situations where you were powerless as a child. Power games may still affect your intimate relationships - especially sexually. You refuse to show weakness but this means that you may seem autocratic. A woman feels she has to bend to your will. Nevertheless, your positive attitude towards personal change ensures that you constantly seek to improve your sex life, and this ultimately leads to deep insight into the nature of your desire.

Bending to your will

In relationships you use your incredible willpower to engineer situations in which you feel secure. And, as you are plagued by jealousy and anxiety about losing power and feeling helpless, your romantic harmony is poisoned by your compulsive need to control every aspect of your partner's life. In your efforts not to be weak you are overwhelmingly dominating, though occasions inevitably arise when you feel humiliated. Your biggest enemy is your desire-nature, which is so compulsive that something has to give. Deep transformations will occur which bring you the psychological awareness necessary to be truly the master of your fate.

You are attracted to a jealous and intense man who is driven by his erotic desire for you. Exhausting battles of will take place in the relationship, resolved by possessed lovemaking, until the next crisis arises. Initially you may feel subjugated by your partner, but as time goes by an amazing reversal takes place. Your man loses his power and you seem to assume the dominating role. You lose respect because he does not match you as a sparring partner. He begs. He shadows you, terrified that you have found another as the object of your desire. This pattern will tend to affect all your relationships until you do the therapeutic work necessary to unearth hidden traumas within you.

Mutuality: Please note that in this case both Charles and Diana have an aspect between the same two planets. This shows a strong bond, and increases compatibility and stability in the relationship. Mutuality - positive/negative: Although dealing with this mutual influence will be easier for one of you to handle than the other, together you will work out lasting solutions to difficult problems and thus enhance the quality of your relationship. Mars/Pluto: In this respect the important challenges for you both are in channelling the strong passions which well up from inside and threaten to take precedence in your behaviour. Dealing with your desire-nature and overcoming negative emotions is achieved through psychological insight and sheer hard work.

The interaction between Mars in one horoscope and the planets in the other, has a profound effect on how you are able to express your will and fulfil your desires. These contacts will also show what form of sexual expression characterises the relationship. Also you may expect both conflict and excitement in the areas specified in this next section.

Charles's Moon positive Diana's Mars

Domestic activity

This is a very stimulating contact which increases activity and dynamism in the relationship - there will be stormy moments but these blow over quickly. There is little danger of getting into a rut here, whether you are active around the house or with the family or out on expeditions, together you are like a dynamo - and the wheels are spinning fast. There is an element of restlessness too, but you make a creative couple if you can channel your energies in the right directions. There is a strong sexual attraction on an instinctive level. The energy of the relationship can lead to stormy episodes but it also ignites the erotic spark between you.

Domestic activity

Your life together with Charles is a hive of activity as you are strongly motivated to work hard to make him feel more secure. In return for your industriousness he creates an environment in which you can thrive. This influence describes the home-maker and pioneer and creates fine circumstances for children, family and home activities in general. In itself this contact is neither romantic, nor especially peaceful. You probably derive some enjoyment from provoking Charles - albeit in a good-natured manner - so the relationship seldom gets boring. You will find him very understanding and supportive.

You may engage the help of your partner in any study program which might be important to you and she will provide the energy and initiative, which you may lack. Some form of intellectual or spiritual pursuit will characterise your relationship. Generally speaking your appetite for life is increased through being with Diana and this should also come to expression physically, with a healthy indulgence in sexual athletics. There is a harmonious union of mind and body.

When you express your visions about the future Diana responds by immediately suggesting a course of action.

Chisel and granite

This is a powerful but exceedingly difficult contact which is characterised by insecurity, friction and control. Initially there may have been a pre-destined element in your attraction to each other and a conviction that you could overcome whatever difficulties arose. Time shows that this is not so easy - you feel threatened by the spontaneous energy of Diana and try to dampen, discipline or channel it. She feels intolerably restricted and bitterly resents your authoritarian approach. The most serious battles are fought in the bedroom, resulting in long periods without sex, or struggles with erotic expression. Try loosening the ropes. Another difficult area is in differing attitudes to work and duties. This relationship constitutes a challenge to you both which takes time and patience to solve. You must confront your fear and Diana her anger and deal with frustrations openly.

You often censure the actions of Diana out of hand, and this can be wearing for you both.

Together you find original ideas to work with. Principles of freedom are extremely important for her, and this in turn gives you considerable scope to express yourself creatively. Periodic separations in which you both do your own thing suit you fine. Long-distance travel or journeys to-and-fro can be integral elements of the relationship. There is a strong sexual magnetism between you but routine sex does nothing for your partner - Diana is looking for the thrill of the unpredictable and this may lead to a good deal of sexual experimentation. You experience severe restrictions in this relationship and this forces you to develop an extraordinary self-restraint and self-discipline - at least if you are looking for a long-term bond. Charles frowns upon any manifestation of your spontaneity, postulating that it is a sign of your immaturity. In actual fact he feels threatened by your ease of action and subconsciously strives to place limits upon your freedom. You in turn find him to be autocratic and inflexible and resort to rebellious behaviour - which of course gives the impression of immaturity. Nowhere does this battle of will come more to the fore than in sexual matters. By resisting your advances Charles asserts his authority over you. This leads to you stubbornly fighting against your own sexual impulses. To overcome impotence or frigidity in this area, you must see that a good sexual relationship is in both your interests. Keep conflict out of the bedroom and be energetic, yet patient, in your foreplay. This relationship is characterised by hard work and ambition - yet it is essential to take time off to enjoy the fruits of your labours.

OTHER ISSUES

 CONTACTS AND COMMUNICATION: However strong the bonds of love, in the long term a healthy relationship also depends on the ability to listen to and understand each other. Many relationships founder on poor communication, once the fires of romance and sexuality abate. The ability to communicate is shown by Mercury in your horoscope, and the following section shows the strengths and weaknesses you have in this area, their effect on your partner, and steps you can take to improve on the contact between you.

Mercury in Scorpio

Depth analysis

You are a quiet and rather secretive person - you keep your ideas to yourself but very few things escape your attention. You have a natural psychological ability which helps you empathise with and understand others. Communication problems arise because you tend to use silence to express disapproval. Your partner does not know what you are thinking - perhaps it would pay you to make the effort to express your thoughts.

Mercury in 4th House

Your thoughts and concerns are centred around home and family, and sibling relationships exert a profound effect upon your mental life.

Charles's Mercury in Diana's 10th House

Diana draws on your ideas and business skills to get ahead in her career. Your talent for communication and other skills can play an important role in "selling" her as a leader.

Mercury in Cancer

Trust your intuition

Mentally, the waters run deep in your nature. Intuitive and supportive, you have a fine talent for tuning in to the thoughts of your partner. However, you tend to worry and your imagination may be a double-edged sword if you start thinking negatively. You should make more effort to communicate clearly and unemotionally, if you want to avoid misunderstandings.

Mercury in 7th House

Your communication skills find particularly strong expression in your relationships with others. You are excellent at making contact with others and evoking other people's talkative sides.

Diana's Mercury in Charles's 11th House

Being with Charles stimulates your abilities to make contact with other people and build up a network of friends and colleagues with shared ideals. You facilitate him in making social progress, because of your interest for and curiosity about the people he mingles with.

Mercury positive Mercury: This is a very harmonious contact which creates the best possible conditions for communication and understanding. Both Charles and Diana share the same attitude of mind and find talking to each other mutually stimulating and untainted by basic disagreement. Their mental development tends to progress in tandem, so that they both can teach and learn from each other.

Aspects between the other planets in your horoscope and your Mercury will show talents or challenges with regard to your ability to express your ideas and be open to other people. These aspects describe the specific ideas you have and the kind of reactions you evoke in others through the way you communicate these ideas.

Mercury positive Saturn

A considered thinker

You can be shy and taciturn, and are rather defensive in intellectually challenging situations. Nevertheless, with time you attain a mature intelligence which ensures that you pay attention to what your partner says, and take good time yourself to get your message across. You may be a plodder but you get things done.

Mercury positive Neptune

An intuitive listener

You are extremely sensitive to atmosphere and the mental state of others and communicate well through feeling rather than through words. Misunderstandings arise because of a lack of directness and because you pre-empt what your partner is going to say - you think you already know what it is. It is good to verbalise more and double-check that you have it right, and are not just hearing what you want to hear.

Mercury positive Pluto

Mental detective

Secrets and hidden matters fascinate you, and you possess a deep psychological perception. You can quickly attune to your partner's psychological state and give very perceptive advice. As a listener you have a wonderful healing power. You believe in the importance of secrets, but you must take care that these do not come between you and your partner.

The interaction between Mercury in the one horoscope and the planets in the other, has a profound effect on your ability to communicate with and understand each other. The following section shows the ease or difficulty your partner has in communicating with and understanding you, and the kind of situations that may arise as a result.

This is a very stimulating contact for you intellectually, creating plenty of philosophical discussion and a general awareness of principles - particularly as regards what is right or wrong, ethically speaking. Often there are disagreements and this may be because you feel that Diana takes herself too seriously or is simply laying down the law. She likes to be right, but you prefer to see issues from several sides. In discussions you will never convince her but you give her a run for her money. Generally though, she does have deeper insights and convictions than you. She sees the big picture whilst you can lose your perspective in too much detail.

This contact creates a sense of mutual responsibility in the relationship - and is particularly well-suited for business ventures together. One cannot describe the bond as talkative - any desire to bubble with ideas and make light conversation are not encouraged by Charles who would prefer a concise and well-considered communication. Through this you learn to express yourself economically and truthfully. When you disagree, least said is soonest mended. Reasoned argumentation is the way forward. You should ensure that you have a shared goal which you can work towards - perhaps on an educational level. There may be a specific language challenge in the relationship.

This is a very stimulating contact on a mental level but it is questionable whether much productive comes out of it. Whenever Diana comes with an idea you tend to throw it back at an angle that is impossible to catch. In other words, you do not communicate smoothly, and you seem to think that it is your job to constantly bombard her with new ideas which are often irrelevant to her train of thought. Such a high degree of dissonance wears the nerves too thin, so it would pay for you to listen more and help Diana maintain her train of thought - whether it is in her daily communication with you or in connection with long-term studies which Diana may embark on.

A discordant note

Though not a major factor in this relationship this contact brings many unpredictable events in your life together. This can mean foreign travel or periodic separations because of work or educational matters. There are communication problems because of a tendency Charles has to interrupt you or to take a completely different line of argument when you are having a discussion. This can be very disorientating for you, scattering your thoughts in all directions. Nevertheless, you stimulate each other strongly - and this is a consciousness-raising factor in the relationship. Foggy communication

Though not a major influence, this connection aggravates a latent tendency to avoid unpleasant truths with evasions and half-lies. Neither of you likes to create a bad atmosphere through disagreement. You feel that Diana has high - perhaps unrealistic - expectations of you and you do not want to disappoint her. Misunderstandings arise through lack of clarity and the tendency to say what you think she wants you to say. The solution is to be direct and honest and thus remove any illusions Diana may have about you. This contact demonstrates the meeting of the rational and the irrational - and the resultant confusion.

Even when you express yourself clearly you will find that you seem to evoke confusion in your partner. This may be because you trigger her fertile imagination - give Diana time to absorb your thoughts and ideas.

Though not major, this contact is favourable for evoking a deep psychological understanding in you. You find Diana unfathomable and this brings out your investigative nature. You would make a good pair of detectives. Together you can discover secrets and unveil long-hidden factors to gain insight and knowledge. The greater the age-difference between you the more significant this contact is. Much of your communication could be non-verbal - she knows how to read your mind, though the opposite is certainly not true. However, you can help Diana express long-repressed memories and act as a catalyst for releasing old traumas. Long and deep conversations into the night bring secrets into the light.

Foggy communication

Though not the most powerful influence this contact can lead to misunderstanding in your communication together. If you are around the same age then the problems Charles might have generally with speaking clearly and making himself understood, become projected onto you. In general, thinking you have grasped what Charles is saying, you may often misinterpret things, or whilst striving to understand, you may feel your mind getting more and more foggy. This problem is compounded by an innate desire not to offend which can mean that half-truths are told. Alternatively you may say what you think the other person wants to hear. When communicating, you must grasp the nettle and say exactly what is on your mind, no matter what you think the consequences may be.

The messages from Charles leave you feeling more confused than enlightened. Ask for clarification and stick with it until you've got it.

Your partner's thoughts and ideas trigger the inner depths of your subconscious, often helping you to unearth forgotten memories. For your part, you force Charles to constantly reassess his ideas and throw out outdated approaches. You have the ability to communicate secretly together.

She is willing to see the whole edifice of your relationship crumble to achieve her will and you are not. Though not so significant on a personal level in everyday life, this contact brings issues of power and authority to the fore. At times of crisis an atmosphere of ultimatum may pervade your relationship, in which Charles's experience and authority are pitted against something even more powerful in yourself. This is a battle which you are ultimately destined to win, though you reap no advantage from it. This is because you are prepared to see the hard-won structures of your life shipwrecked on the rock of your wilfulness, whilst Charles is not prepared to lose what he has invested in the relationship. In your outer life there are dangers through involvement with powerful institutions, whether they are institutions of state or more secretive underworld groups. In both your personal and public lives it is important to extricate yourselves before damage is done.

Divergence through career Fame and fortune

This strong bond shows your deep-rooted attachment to Charles, often based on matters concerned with the past. Whilst you are a source of inspiration to him - he tends to modify his goals according to your lead - there will be times when your ways diverge. This is either because you require too much of your partner's attention with domestic matters or because there is a conflict of interest in professional matters. Your partner has to assert his professional needs even if it hurts your pride. At times of self-discovery and self-realisation in particular, you may feel that a change of career or abode is called for, which may be very disruptive - temporarily at least. If your emotional bonds are strong there is no profound negative effect in the long run unless the relationship is based on outdated feelings of over-dependency.
